

NRA Basic Courses

Each course in its basic discipline, will teach Participants the knowledge, skills, and attitude necessary for owning and using a firearm safely. This basic course is objective based and required in order to be certified as an instructor in a specific firearm discipline.

The NRA basic courses currently hosted at Flagler Gun and Archery Club are as follows...

Non-Shooting Courses:

- NRA Home Firearm Safety
- NRA Refuse to be a Victim
- NRA Range Safety Officer
- NRA Chief Range Safety Officer Shooting

Courses:

- NRA Basics of Pistol Shooting
- NRA Basics of Rifle Shooting
- NRA Basics of Shotgun Shooting
- NRACCW Course
- NRA Defensive Pistol
- NRA Personal Protection Inside the Home
- NRA Personal Protection Outside the Home

Instructor Courses:

- NRA Basic Pistol Instructor Course
- NRA Basic Rifle Shooting Instructor Course
- NRA Basic Shotgun Shooting Instructor Course
- NRA CCW Instructor Course
- NRA Home Firearm Safety Instructor Course
- NRA Personal Protection Inside the Home Course
- NRA Personal Protection Outside the Home Course ➤
- NRA Defensive Pistol Instructor Course

NOTE:

In order to qualify for Instructor Training you must Attend a Basic Course in the discipline you wish to be certified in, and pass the Instructor Qualification tests.

Because the NRA encourages that Instructors work as teams to be able to give each student the time required to effectively learn the objectives of each course, The NRA Requires that a minimum of four students MUST be in the class for an Instructor Level Course to be run.

If you are interested in becoming an NRA Certified Instructor, and want more detailed information, please contact Robert Shorey. Bulletins are posted on various bulleting boards on the club's ranges.

Substantial Discounts are offered for Members of Flagler Gun and Archery Club.
